IDEA 1 OF 6

Close the year with a look-back

Pick the moments your fans reacted to most and replay them in one post. It is cheap to make and it ties the year together.

- Uses content you already have
- Works in any sport

HOW TO DO IT

1. List the 8-10 best moments of the year with the media team.
2. Cut them into one reel or carousel, newest to oldest or the reverse.
3. Schedule it for the last week of December and thank fans in the caption.

IDEA 2 OF 6

Turn the festive fixtures into a matchday poster

A busy holiday schedule is the best moment for a clear graphic: who plays, when, and where to watch.

- Reusable template
- Ready for Boxing Day

HOW TO DO IT

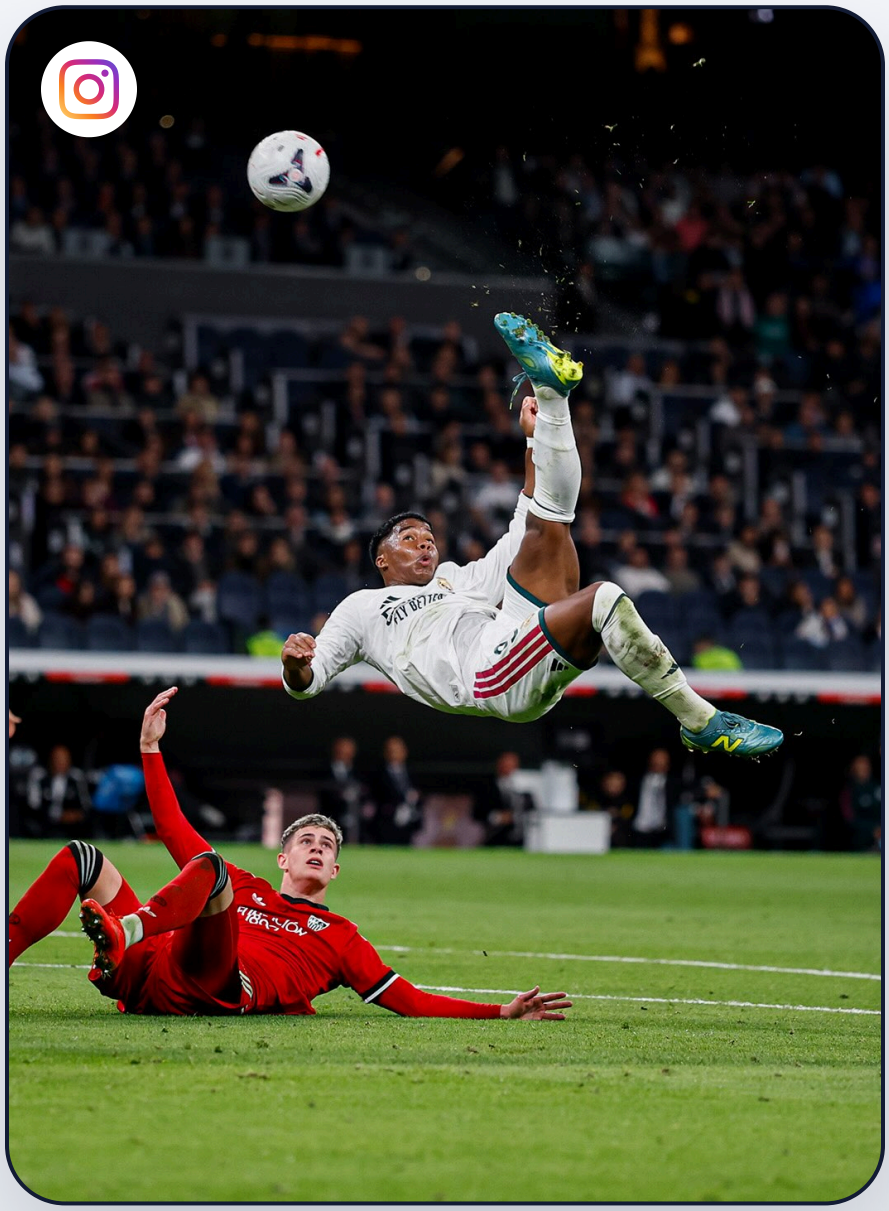

1. Collect every match between Christmas and New Year with date and kick-off time.
2. Use one template with the same grid and colours for every poster.
3. Post it the morning of each match and update it in Stories.

IDEA 3 OF 6

Let a player front your sponsor's gift moment

Pair one player with one product for a short, natural video. The gift feels like part of the club world, not an ad.

- Good for sponsors
- One player, one product

HOW TO DO IT

1. Pick one player and one gift-friendly product from a sponsor.
2. Film a short, relaxed clip: the player reacts, tries or chooses.
3. Tag the sponsor and add a single link or action in the caption.

IDEA 4 OF 6

Film the arrival before the big game

The walk into the stadium, the outfit, the greetings. A 15-second clip shows fans the day starting.

- Cheap to produce
- Players do the work

HOW TO DO IT

1. Ask one media team member to wait at the entrance or the airport.
2. Capture 2-3 players arriving, no voice-over, just the sound.
3. Post it 2-3 hours before kick-off or the first session.

IDEA 5 OF 6

Fill quiet days with a sport swap

When there is no match, let players try another sport. A visit to a rugby club or a golf challenge keeps the feed active.

- Great for quiet weeks
- Brings new audiences

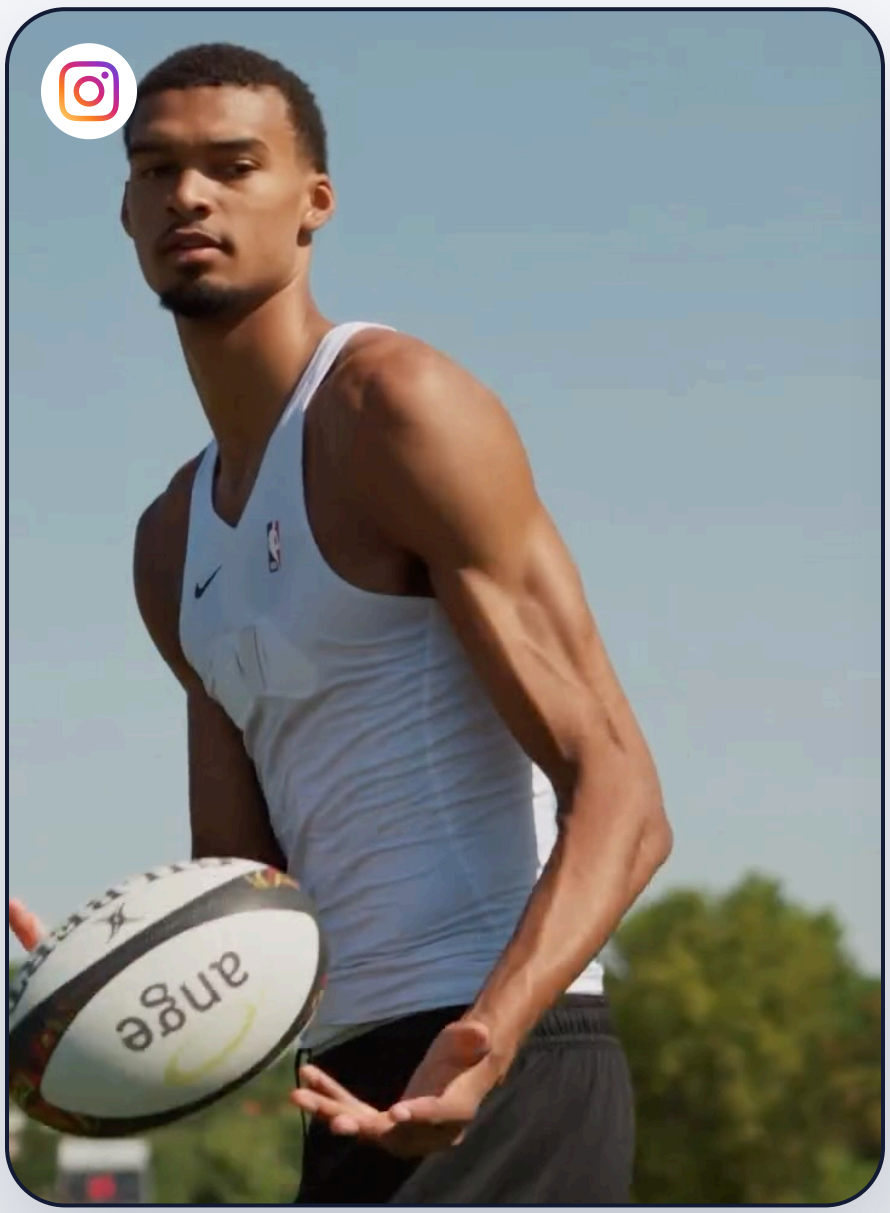

HOW TO DO IT

1. Choose a sport that fits your area, such as golf, padel or rugby.
2. Invite a local club or athlete to host your players for an hour.
3. Turn it into a challenge: who hits the best shot, who learns fastest?

IDEA 6 OF 6

Prepare the champions post before the final

Finals are decided in a minute. Have two versions of the post ready so you publish the right one in seconds.

- Plan both outcomes
- Publish in minutes

HOW TO DO IT

1. Draft one post for a win and one for a loss, with photo, line and graphic.
2. Agree who publishes and who approves, and test the flow.
3. Publish within minutes of the final whistle and reply to the first comments.
